

READING PICTURES (203)

Wednesdays, 1:00 – 2:30 (4 Classes 1/29 – 2/19) in Room 11

Tuition $40

An introductory course for those who appreciate art and would like to explore its creatin and meaning. Focusing on painting and sculpture, we will cover the visual elements and principles of design used by artists. We will then examine selected artworks to reinforce this material and expand your art vocabulary. Participation is encouraged, bring pencil and paper.

Annie Garrad. After a mid-life return to school and career change, Annie thoroughly enjoyed teaching Art Appreciation and Art History at college level in North Texas. She is now retired and taking studio classes herself, to become a “doer” as well as a “talker” when it comes to art. She is currently enjoying pastels but admits to being a very messy worker.